A Peak Into My Guided Reading Toolbox. Reading is probably one of my favourite things to teach in first grade. It is amazing the progress that these little first graders make over the course of a school year. Even if they don't make it to the end of Grade One goal (for us it is Level I/16), the lowest of readers can still make some sort of progress.

Teaching guided reading remotely means assessing a little differently with some creativity! There are a few ways you can assess students' progress in reading. First, you can ask parents to send you a video of their child reading the book you sent home. You can listen for accuracy, fluency, and overall confidence while reading.

4 Practical Steps to Teaching Guided Reading Remotely

How long guided reading lasts is up to you. Just make sure you give your students enough time to work through the text. For example, first graders might only be able to concentrate on reading for about 15 minutes, while older students can probably read for 30 minutes. You can also give different groups different amounts of time.

Guided Math in 1st Grade. The Daily 3 and Guided Math are a small-group approach to learning mathematics, just like we meet with students daily during Guided Reading, we meet with students as mathematicians. It is a deviation from whole-group math instruction. As a team, we decided to take the Guided Math jump – modeling our math block after our reading block and the transformation was AMAZING!
