17 March, St Patrick ' s Day, falls in Lent, so a feast day would have been particularly boring, with no meat, no alcohol and a general sombre tone. However, being a holy day, Lenten rules were temporarily waived, leading to a mid-Lent party – meat, drink, dancing, and general partying, a nice break a couple of weeks into the season.

When a class leaves for recess, their just-baked Gingerbread Man is left behind. But he's a smart cookie and heads out to find them. He'll run, slide, skip, and (after a mishap with a soccer ball) limp as fast as he can because: "I can catch them! I'm their Gingerbread Man!" With help from the gym teacher, the nurse, the art teacher and even the principal, the Gingerbread Man does find his class, and he's assured they'll never leave him behind again. Teachers often use the Gingerbread Man story to introduce new students to the geography and staff of schools, and this fresh, funny twist on the original can be used all year long. Includes a poster with fun activities!
